IN THE MODN-LIGHT, GENTLE BREEZES
STARS A-BOVE ALL KNOW I LOVE YOU

BLOW. SO. WHIP-OR-WILL IS CALLING FROM A-FAR.
THAT'S THE ON-LY REASON WHY THEY SHINE.

'NEATH YOUR WIN-DOW WHERE THE ROSES GROW,

CAN YOU HEAR ME PLAY MY OLD GUI-TAR?

ALL THE FLOW-ERS, NODDING TO AND FRO, ARE KEEPING TIME TO THIS MEL-O-DY OF MINE.

OH MY LA-DY,

MY LOVIN' LA-DY LOVE, WON'T YOU LIS-TEN TO MY SER-EN-ADE?

PINE TREES SIGH-IN': WITH ME THEY'RE CRY-IN', 'CAUSE YOU HAVEN'T HEARD A TUNE I'VE PLAY'D.

AND ALL THE BULL FROGS CHIRPIN' AND THE CRICK-ETS, TOO, TRY-IN' HARD TO HELP ME AS I'M SING-ING TO YOU.

HINDOO HOP

LYRIC BY LOUIS BREAU
MUSIC BY SOL P. LEVY (1921)

WAY OUT IN HINDUSTAN
WHERE EV'RY SKIN IS TAN,

THEY'RE DOING SOMETHING NEW.
FOR LAZZ HAS HIT 'EM, TOO.

SOMEONE HAS SHOWN THEM A LAUGHING TROMBONE. NOW, EV'RY NIGHT, ALL THE HINDOOS ARE GOIN' :

ONE! TWO! THREE! FOUR! THEY COUNT AND LIFT THEIR FEET.
THEY DO IT MIGHTY NEAT.

AND THEN THEY ALL REPEAT TO THE RUM! DUM! DUM! DUM! RUM! DUM! DUM!

'TIL THE SANDS ON THE DESERT GROW COLD. THEY DO EACH MOVEMENT SO LAZZY AND BOLD.

THEY GET THE YOUNG AND OLD WITH THEIR RUM DUM BUM BUM RUM DUM BUM BUM BUM

ON THE DESERT SAND, A LAZZY HINDOO BAND PLAYS EV'RY DAY. AND DANCE A-ROUND JUST LIKE A SPINNING TOP. AL-LAH BE PRAISED, YOU'RE

SAY: DAZED. THEY SWAY. LIKE A CAR-A-VAN, THEY ROLL FROM SIDE TO SIDE.

SEE THEM ALL GLIDE. JUST WATCH EACH HINDOO, WITH A GRIN, DO STEPS THAT WIN YOU.

YOU'LL BE BOUND TO

YOU'LL DROP FROM DO-ING THAT HIN-DOO HOP.

JUST HOP! HOP! AND STOP!

RECITATION

Listen fellows, you know it's not all the time that a man can have a good woman,
A woman that he can call his very own; a woman who'll stay right there at home and mind the children while he's gone to work.
A woman who'll have his dinner cooked when he comes home.
Where some men make mistakes is when they go out and stay because they feel that no other man wants his woman but him.
Well, listen...

VERSE 2

If you think no other man wants her,
Just throw her away and you will see
Some man will have her
Before you can count one, two, three.
Yes, he will, yes, he will.

RECITATION

Listen girls, this goes for you, too, because you know I've seen so many women who've had so many good men in life,
Men who'd stand by them through thick and thin, men who'd go to work every day and bring home their hard-earned pay;
Men who'd give their women anything that their little hearts desired.
Where some women make mistakes is when their men let them go out and play,
And they stay, because she felt no other woman wanted him but her.
Well, listen...

VERSE 3

If you think that no other woman wants him,
Just pitch him out in the street and you will see
Some woman will have your man
Before you can count one, two, three.
Yes, she will, yes, she will.

COME BACK TO SORRENTO

ERNESTO DI CURTIS (1935)

Musical score for 'Come Back to Sorrento' in 3/4 time. The melody is written on a single staff with a treble clef. The key signature has one flat (B-flat). The score includes lyrics and chord symbols above the notes. The lyrics are: 'O'er the sea the sunlight dan-cing, wak-ing thoughts of tender feeling. I have seen your eyes re-flect-ing this same light that makes me dream. When I pass a lovely gar-den, breath-ing scent of ma-ny blossoms, there's a mem'ry and a pic-ture of but you with-in my heart. Now you say good-bye I'm leav-ing, this poor heart of mine is griev-ing. Can it be that you've for-got-ten? Can it be that love is gone? Say not fare-well, and leave a heart that's bro-ken. Come back to sor-ren-to, that I may live.'

(A KANSAS CITY RAG)
"DOC" BROWN'S CAKE WALK

CHAS. L. JOHNSON (1899)

There is probably no city or town in the country that does not contain a peculiar character—one who is singled out on account of doing certain things that no one else would think of doing, or using strange language that seems senseless, but nevertheless has a meaning which is readily understood when the listener can see the speaker, or other eccentric traits which make these characters a special object for comment.

Of all such that may exist there is probably not one of them that compares with the subject of this sketch for original mirth-provoking characteristics.

"Doc" Brown is noted in Kansas City and vicinity for the many comical and unusual things he does and says but as the "Champion Cake Walker" of the country is where he shines. He has met all comers in this line and has never failed to "take the cake" with one exception, namely, in St. Louis several years ago. The judges at this contest were conceded to be unfair by everyone present, hence this is not considered a defeat.

The rythm commonly called the "Cake Walk" is departed from in this composition purposely with the hope that this style may find as hearty approval as the old.

"DOC" BROWN.

The image shows a handwritten musical score for a piece titled "DOC" BROWN. The score is written on ten staves of music. The first staff begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a common time signature (C). The first measure is marked with a box containing the letter 'A' and the chord 'Em'. The melody consists of eighth and quarter notes. The second staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with the chords 'B7', 'Em', and 'B7', followed by a second ending with 'G' and 'D7'. The third staff starts with a box containing the letter 'B' and the chord 'A7', followed by 'D7'. It includes a first ending bracketed section with 'G' and 'D7', and a second ending with 'G', 'G7/F', 'C/E', 'Cm/Eb', 'G/D', and 'C#0'. The fourth staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with 'G/D', 'Cm', 'Am', 'D7', 'G', and 'B7', followed by a 'D.C. al f' instruction. The fifth staff is marked 'TRIO' and begins with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp, and a common time signature. It includes a first ending bracketed section with 'C', 'E7', 'A7', 'D7', 'G7', and 'E7', followed by a second ending with 'C' and 'E7'. The sixth staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with 'Am', 'A7', 'C#0', 'G/D', 'C', 'D7', 'G7', and 'E7', followed by a second ending with '2. x C x E7', 'A7', and 'Dm'. The seventh staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with 'G7', 'C', 'E7', 'Am', 'G7', 'C', and 'Ab/Eb', followed by a second ending with 'G7/D' and 'G7'. The eighth staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with 'C', 'B7/D#', 'Em', 'D7/F#', 'G', 'E7/Bb', 'D7/A', 'G', and 'C', followed by a second ending with 'D' and 'E7'. The ninth staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with 'C', 'B7/D#', 'Em', 'D7/F#', 'G', 'E7/Bb', 'D7/A', 'G', and 'C', followed by a second ending with 'D' and 'E7'. The tenth staff continues the melody and includes a first ending bracketed section with 'C', 'B7/D#', 'Em', 'D7/F#', 'G', 'E7/Bb', 'D7/A', 'G', and 'C', followed by a second ending with 'D' and 'E7'. The score is written in ink on a white background. There are some corrections and annotations in red ink, such as 'f' for fortissimo and 'ff' for fortississimo. The handwriting is clear and legible.
